

only much weaker. The Plant begins to flower towards the last of June or first of July, and the principal Heads to ripen about the middle of July. These Heads of Seeds are the Parts most proper for Use, and about this Time or a little before, people should begin to gather them as they ripen, before the Seed begins to shake out. They should be carefully dried in the Shade, and laid by for Use. And as this Medicine will probably come very much into Use, for its Virtue in relieving those afflicted with the Stone and Gravel, all Persons who have an Opportunity are desired to gather and preserve the Heads as they ripen, now in the proper Season,—whether it be with a charitable View to relieve the afflicted, or to profit by the Sale, for there will doubtless be a considerable Demand for them. It is also recommended to Farmers and Gardiners, to sow some of the Seed in enclosures, at the proper Season.

A Gentleman in England who had been greatly afflicted with the Stone in the Kidneys for 46 Years, had applied to the best Physicians, and taken all the common Medicines in vain, and was at last so extremely ill that he could not sit up, and expected the Disorder would soon put an End to his Life.—By drinking Tea made of these Seeds, Morning and Evening, in three Days found the Pain begin sensibly to abate, and in five Days it was entirely removed, his Spirits reviv'd and he was restored to Health and Ease.

His Method was to put five or six Heads into a Teapot, and pouring scalding Water upon it, let it stand a while and drink it with Sugar as other Tea, with his Breakfast, one Pot full at a Time, which was about half a Pint : He drank it again at Night with his Supper, and drank nothing after it at Night, or before it in the Morning ; at other Times he drank as much small Beer as he had an Inclination for, and two or three Glasses of Wine after Dinner, but rigidly refrain'd from strong Beer, and seldom eat any salt Meats.

He continued to use this Tea from the first of August to the 17th of December, during which Time he was quite easy and well. He then discontinued the Use of it, when after some Time the Disorder return'd again—he had a Fit of it which lasted six Hours ; but by again using his Tea, found Relief, and in a few Days entirely recover'd. —He had then continued in this Practice for four Years, during which he had enjoyed an almost uninterrupted Ease and Health ; and since publishing this valuable Discovery, the News Papers inform us of many other Persons who have been relieved in like Manner, both in the Stone and Gravel. Tho' the Tea has a very agreeable Taste, yet one Gentleman who had a weak Stomach and did not relish it, had the Essence extracted, which he took in Tea or some other Liquid, and found the same good Effects, as from the Tea.

It is desired of all the Printers of News Papers, to whose Hands this may come, to publish it in their Papers.

PHILADELPHIA, July 27.
Extract of a Letter from London, dated May 22, 1767.

" Inclosed I send you a Copy of the Merchants Report on the subject of Paper Money, obtained after many Meetings and delivered to the Ministry : But there are still great Difficulties, the B—d of T—de being extremely averse to the Repeal of the Act, and yet I hope we shall get over all, the Ministry being at length prevailed on to espouse the Measure, that the Colonies may have something to give on a Requisition from the Crown, and that the Duties may increase by the increase of Commerce.—But it is strongly reported that the present Ministry will be soon changed ; if so, all our Labour will be rendered fruitless."

The Merchants of London, trading to the Continent of America, are of Opinion ;

• That the most speedy and effectual Relief to the Colonies, in respect to the present distressed State of their Commerce, for Want of a Medium of Trade will be the Repeal of an Act of Parliament respecting Bills of Credit in America, passed in the 4th Year of his present Majesty ; and that such Repeal cannot hurt the British Merchants, provided a Clause be inserted in the Act for the said Repeal, declaring Paper Bills of Credit shall not be a legal Tender in Payment of any Sterling Debts or Contracts whatsoever, already made or to be made by or with or in the Name and Behalf of any Person residing in the Kingdom of Great-Britain."

We hear from Norfolk, in Virginia, that the Hon. Col. Robert Tucker, of that Place, a Gentleman of great Merit and Distinction, died there on the 1st Inst.

The Office of Commissary General of the Province of Maryland, having lately become vacant by the Death of the Hon. Charles Goldsborough, Esq; his Excellency Governor Sharpe, has appointed the Hon. Walter Dulany, Esq, to that important Trust.

By Capt. Adams from Barcelona, but last from Madeira, we have advice of the Arrival of Captain Sibbald, of this Port, at Madeira, on the 12th Ult. and that Capt. Finglass, in a Ship belonging to New-York, was to sail the 15th Ult.

Capt. Winslow, who arrived here on Friday last, in 10 Weeks from Liverpool, informs, That on the 4th Inst. in Lat. 65, 0, he spoke a Sloop from Boston, that had been out 3 Days, and was going on a Whaling Voyage—and on the 11th Inst. in Long. 67, 0, W. spoke a Brig from New-London, bound to the West-Indies, out 3 Days, and all well.

Yesterday a Detachment of Troops set off for Pittsburg.

NEW-YORK, July 30.

On Tuesday the 21st Instant, a Vessel, going out from Cow Harbour, Long-Island, was overset about three Miles from the Place of her Departure : by which Accident the two Boatmen, Jonas Weeks and John Abbot, were both drown'd ; the Body of Jonas Weeks was driven on shore next Day, at Loyd's-Neck, as also the Vessel and two Women, Passengers, who saved themselves by holding fast to the Parts above Water. One of Women was once wash'd off from the Vessel,—but by what Means she got hold again, we have not yet learn'd.

Extract of a Letter from New-Orleans, dated

June 21, 1767.

Monsieur De Ulloa continues at the Bellies ; the Spaniards are building a Fort opposite the old one on the Right Hand as you enter the River, another within Gun Shot of Fort Bute, another below the Natches on the West Side of the River, and a Fourth near Fort Charters, Illinois. Brigadier Haldiman is daily expected here on his Way to the Natches ; We hear the Lieut. Governor has occasioned a general Dissatisfaction among the Inhabitants of Pensacola.

Friday Evening last, Capt. Tudor arrived here in 12 Days from St. Eustatia : On Tuesday 4th he spoke with Capt. Finglass from the Straights for this Port, and saw 7 other Vessels in Company, all which he imagined were bound in here.

Saturday arrived a Transport from Philadelphia, and a Sloop from the West-Indies.

Capt. Riley in 31 Days from Surinam, on the 24th of June, in Lat. 28, spoke with Capt. Gibbs, in a Sloop from South-Carolina, for St. Kitts, who had been out 18 Days, and had lost all his Water : Capt. Riley spared him one hogshead, and Capt. Moore, who was in Company with Riley, bound for New-London from St. Eustatia, spared him another. Capt. Riley left Capt. Masterton, in a Brig of this Place, at Surinam.

Last Week arrived here Capt. Cotton, from Iquibo, but last, in 15 Days from St. Eustatia.—The Day he failed from thence, the Brig Helena, Capt. Harriot, arrived at Statia, from this Place, in her Way to Coracoa, and had brought in with him Dr. Vanzolingen, late Owner, and Captain Livingston, Master of a Sloop, from this Port, bound for the West Indies, together with all his Men, whom Capt. Harriot took off of the Wreck at Sea, six Days after he failed from this Port :—By several Letters from them, we have the following melancholy Account of their Disaster : That on the 16th of June, four Days after they left the Land, the Sloop sprung a Leak, and, notwithstanding all their Endeavours, she soon filled : They had but a few Feet of the Quarter-Deck above Water ; but the Vessel happily did not sink under them : The next day several Planks of the Main-Deck blew up, and a pretty high Sea running, they were exposed to the utmost Distress ; they could not make any Sail at all, but were left to the Mercy of the Waves ; After continuing in this deplorable Condition above four Days, Capt. Cotton happily appeared, and took them up : They saved nothing but the wet Clothes on their Backs, and as the Vessel began to fall to pieces just as they were discovered, it is thought, had not the kind Providence of God so seasonably interposed, that in a few Hours more they would all have perished.

Capt. Cotton says the Earthquake was at Damarra and Iquibo on the 20th of April last, while he was there ; and that his Vessel was much agitated and shook by it.

This Evening there will be a CONCERT OF MUSIC with genteel FIRE-WORKS, at RANELAGH GARDEN, if the Weather permits, to begin at 7 o'Clock, otherwise to be deferr'd till To-Morrow Evening.

To the PRINTER,

SIR,

HAVING been favoured with the perusal of some of the latest Papers we have had from Europe, I could not avoid making some Remarks upon sundry Passages as I read along, some of which I herein send you, and if you please to publish them in your Paper, they are at your Service, as also many more of the like Kind, which I propose from Time to Time to send you.

WRITER in Scotland, laments the Increase of National Idleness, Luxury and Extravagance ;—That Gaming is no longer an Amusement, but the serious Business of Life, and is even the Employment of the Sabbath Day. That unseasonable Hours for every Thing, the Neglect of every important Duty, the Corruption of Children and Servants, the Separation of Husband and Wife the Loss of Fortune, domestic Happiness and Virtue, naturally succeed.—That we may now with Propriety be called a Nation of Gamesters,—every Difference of Opinion, being decided by Bets,—nothing too little or too great, too serious or too ridiculous for a Wager.—No wonder the most important Rights of a free People should be violated, by infatuated Men, who seem to have lost the very Ideas of Right and Wrong, Good and Evil, and who seriously attempt to justify Oppression by the most glaring Absurdities, and Contradiction of common Sense !—Life and Death, the Fate of Nations, —the most sacred Rights of Mankind,—whether Corsica,—whether America,—whether England shall be possessed by free People, or infested by Tyrants and Slaves (The Terms are synonymous) these tremendous Alternatives—(so amazing is the modish Levity,) are the Subjects of Bets and Wagers ! And we have Reason to expect, that Man's eternal Salvation or Misery, will be the next Wager suitable to the high Taste of the Times !

Another Writer expatiates upon the Prospect of the East-India Company's Dissolution, which he supposes would be of great Advantage to the Nation, and is what it has a Right to expect, both as it is an unreasonable Restraint upon all that are not of that Company, and as the Company have forfeited their Charter. [But at present there is no likelihood that the Wishes of this Writer will be accomplished, tho' nothing is yet certainly determined concerning that Company.] [To be continued.]

Extracts from the Edinburgh Papers to May 28, brought by the Snow Buchanan, Capt. Cochran, in Seven Weeks and Five Days from Glasgow.

That Peace is concluded between the Turks and the Georgians, on Condition that the Latter send every Year to the Seraglio 20 fine female Slaves, which the Turks are not to have the Liberty to refuse or exchange.

A Dissolution of Parliament, is expected soon, and that a new one will be called—a Plan said to be under Consideration for Taxing America.—The King of Spain it is said will communicate to the Pope only, his Reasons for banishing the Jesuits.—But the French Minister writes from Madrid, that the King escaped Assassination only by retiring from his Capital three Days before the Plot was to be executed.—The Banishment of the Jesuits has occasioned two Meetings, one in England, the other in Scotland, of a religious Order, of whom there are great Numbers in Great-Britain.—Most injurious Reflections on the Americans, industriously propagated all over Great-Britain.—Bets and Wagers run very high, on the Event of the Great Cause relating to the Douglas Estate and Title, it is said no less than £. 100,000 are betted on it in Scotland only.—Great Bets likewise—whether the Corsicans will be free Men or Slaves, by the End of the Year.—The like Bets lately ran high with Regard to America! But it seems to be almost over with poor America!—The knowing Ones offered 82 to one against her, [but we hope the knowing Ones will be taken in yet.]

The East-India Affairs, which were to have come before the Parliament on the 27th, are put off to the first of June, and 'twas thought Matters would be amicably adjusted. 'Twas thought the Parliament would rise about the middle of June.—Some important Affairs in the East-Indies since Lord Clives arrival there were laid before the House.

[The Account published in the last Philadelphia Chronicle of the late Resolutions of Parliament respecting America, has this Addition (to what was published in our last, viz.)

" Then the said Resolution (that is the first) was agreed to by the House ;"

" The subsequent Resolutions of the Committee, being read a second Time, were agreed to by the House :"

" Ordered, that a Bill be brought in upon the last of the said Resolutions, and that Mr. Fuller, Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Thomas Townend, junr. Mr. Onslow, Mr. Prys Campbell, The Lord Clare, the Lord North, Mr. Attorney General, Col. Barre, Mr. Dyfon and Mr. Cooper, do prepare and bring in the same."

On Monday last the Body of a drowned Man was brought to the Ferry-Stairs, it appeared to the Jury of Inquest to be the Body of one Ellis Tyrion, late a Soldier in the 46th Regiment. His Discharge dated a few Days before, was found in his Pocket. 'Tis not known by what Accident he came by his Death.—The Jury brought in their Verdict—A cidental.

The same Day one M'Fadden, a Woman, said to be lately arrived from Philadelphia, who was in an ill State of Health, and subject to Fits,—having had some angry Words with a Woman who lived in the same House, she fell into a Fit, (brought on, it is thought, by her Passion) in which she expired.

The 17th and 46th Regiments are now embarked

The Boston Papers by the Hartford Post contain nothing material later than we have had.

We hear from Hartford that on Saturday Night last it was discovered that a little Boy of four Years old, Son of Mr. Robert Sloan of that Town, was missing, — all imaginable Search was made by the distress'd Parents, assisted by several Hundreds of sympathizing Neighbours, from that Time till the Post came away, without the least Trace tending to a Discovery of the poor little Wanderer.

SUPPLEMENT to the NEW-YORK JOURNAL, OR GENERAL ADVERTISER.—NUMB. 1282.

THURSDAY, JULY 30, 1767.

[Our last Week's Supplement contained an Answer to Part of a scandalous defamatory Piece published in the London Papers, some Time ago, entitled, American Ideas, of what is right, wrong and reasonable, &c. The two first of these, with some Remarks, we republished in our Supplement No. 1271.—But the following has not before appeared in our Paper.—In our next we propose to insert the Answer to it.]

From the LONDON GAZETTEER, March 9, 1767.
AMERICAN IDEAS of what is REASONABLE, according to the genuine meaning of some late pamphlets, continued from the Gazetteer of Thursday last.

PON the strength of the foregoing principles of right and wrong, we petition first of all, that we may be permitted to import foreign sugars into North-America at a much less duty than at present, which is 5s. per cwt. (though by the bye, you pay in England even 6s. 4d. per cwt. for British plantation sugars) and then, as we shall buy these foreign sugars at almost half the cost of yours, we shall be enabled to refine them much cheaper than you can refine yours; the consequence of which is, that we shall supply not only ourselves in America with refined sugars, to the exclusion of yours, but shall also undersell you in that commodity in every market in Europe. It is, therefore, reasonable, that you should grant us this request, else we shall not be able to pay our debts. As to that silly proposal of some of your London sugar-bakers, viz "to permit us to import foreign raw sugars into North-America, and to lodge them in a ware-house there till they are exported to England, where they are to pay a duty of one third more than British plantation sugars;" we do not relish this proposal at all. For as it is calculated for the benefit of the mother country, for the increase of her revenue, trade and navigation, it doth not answer the ends which we principally have in view.

2. We petition, that no advantage be given to Great-Britain in the sale of foreign logwood; but that we may be permitted to carry this logwood directly to whatever European market we shall please; and then, when we have enabled your rivals to dye their goods at a cheaper rate, we will take such goods in exchange for our logwood, and will laugh at your laws of restraint and prohibition. This, therefore, is another reasonable request, which we hope you will grant, otherwise we shall not be able to pay our debts.

3. We petition, that we may be permitted to import lumber, pot ash, provisions, and flax-seed directly into Ireland, without touching at any port in England. But as this is an article, which you yourselves seem willing to grant, under certain modifications, we will not concern ourselves much about it.

4. For the same reason we shall be silent, as to the importation of Madeira wines from America into England, drawing back the American duty.

5. But we petition most strenuously for having the fisheries on the Banks of Newfoundland, and on the Coasts of Labrador, absolutely free. For as we are much better situated for carrying on these fisheries than you are, and as we have many advantages which you cannot possibly acquire, therefore we should soon ruin you in the competition, and monopolize the trade to ourselves, were we allowed to have any share in these fisheries; and then we should exchange such fish with the French, as you know we have begun to do already, for their velvets, silks and laces; for their wines and brandies; for their cloths, linens and stuffs; for their teas, china, calicoes and all sorts of East-India goods; and what we could not dispose of in that manner, we would carry directly to the free ports of Spain and Italy, and there take in under a pretence of loading salt, all manner of manufactures, and all sorts of goods, according as we shall think proper; nor would it be in the power of your Custom-house officers on our coasts to prevent us, if they were willing. But all the world knows, that their consciences are no more scrupulous than our own; nay, we even now carry on as extensive a smuggling trade with these free ports, where magazines are prepared for us, as we possibly can, under the colour of taking in salt. This, therefore, as it strikes at all your strength by sea, viz. your breed of sailors (for as to our American sailors, they will not enter on board your royal navy; and be it known unto you, that we will not permit them to be pressed; and if you dare to attempt it, our American method is, to FLOG the officer.) This request, therefore, as it strikes at your strength by sea, and as it would supplant your capital manufactures by land, and greatly injure your revenue in the duties on East-India goods, we must insist upon to be the most reasonable of any; and if you will not grant it, we tell you plainly, that we will not pay our debts.

6. We petition, that the free ports lately opened in the Islands of Jamaica and Dominica should be made more subservient to us, and less to you, than they now are; and we are at a loss to find out the cause, how it comes to pass, or who could unluckily put it into your heads, that you should have any notion of preferring the interest of Great-Britain, in this affair, to the interest of America, seeing that you have hardly ever done the like before. It is, therefore, highly reasonable, that you should alter this part of your system, so as to correspond with the rest; and that you should resolve never to listen to such bad advice for the future, otherwise we shall not pay our debts.

7. Lastly, We petition to be freed from every jurisdiction derived from the mother country, such only excepted as we can controul when we will, and modify how we please. The institution of an admiralty jurisdiction—though similar to the proceedings in your Court of Exchequer, and to the powers given to your Commissioners of Excise, and to Justices of the Peace in England—is a jurisdiction intolerable to America. For we are a much more licentious people than you if that be possible; but certain it is that we will not bear to be subject to the same restraints. Besides, this Admiralty jurisdiction is a grievance in another view; for it is the chief, if not the only check, which you have upon our staple trade of smuggling; nay, as it prevents a smuggler from being tried by his peers, that is, by a jury of smugglers, and doth thereby promote the interest and the consumption of the manufactures of the mother country, we must pronounce it to be the greatest injustice, and the most shocking oppression upon earth. But above all, the authority of this detested court is the authority of Great-Britain immediately exerted over us, without the intervention of any officers of our town choosing; so that whilst this odious court subsists and is maintained with vigour, we never can be a truly sovereign and independent people. It is, therefore, very reasonable, that you should abolish it, otherwise we will not pay our debts.

But after what has been said, if you will, gentle Sirs, be so kind, and so good natured, as to grant us these few requests—so very reasonable, and so exceedingly modest—then your humble petitioners, as in duty bound, shall ever pay, &c. &c. etc.

and who was sent to the Bastile, is almost cured. He will be immediately conducted to the frontiers of France next to England; and the King, desirous that this affair may be attended with no bad consequences, has ordered the military gentleman, who is a reduced officer of the regiment of Fitz James, not to depart the kingdom on any pretence whatever.

Vienna, April 25. They write from Chemnitz in Hungary, that some persons of Frauenmark, in the county of Hanten, having chased a wild boar for some time and having followed it into the mountains, farther perhaps than they had ever penetrated before, they saw on the snow vestiges of a human creature, which they followed, and which led them to a cavern, where to their great surprise, they found a young girl, quite naked, of a deep brown colour, and to appearance about fifteen or eighteen years of age. At first she set up cries, but wept not. She gazed afterwards with surprise at those round her, and suffered herself at last to be led away by them. They carried her to the hospital of Carpian, a little royal town, in the county of Altsal, near Chemnitz, where they clothed her, and made her take some nourishment. Hitherto she has constantly refused all the dressed meats that has been laid before her, and she feeds only upon raw viands, the rind of trees, roots, and other things of the like nature, which she devours very greedily. It is difficult to conjecture how she came into the forest where she was discovered, and how she lived there.

BOSTON, July 13.

From Somerset county, Maryland, we learn that one Francis Ange, died there about three months ago, in a very advanced age. A Gentleman of that province, some years ago, having occasion to ride in the neighbourhood where this man lived, and hearing of his great age, had the curiosity to go and see him. In a letter to his friend & correspondent in this Town August 9, 1764, he gives the following account of him, as he had it from the man himself: That he was born at Stratford upon Avon, in Warwickshire, England; that his father's name was John, a cutler by trade, and his mother's name Eleanor; that he could remember King Charles I. being beheaded, as he was then a pretty big boy; that he came to this country in a ship from Parkgate called the Great Bengal, and served his time with one Nicholas Demar on Rappahannock. The Gentleman says that at that time he was not less than 130 years of age, had scarce a wrinkle in his face, had thick black hair, with a very few grey hairs interspersed, and that his wife, who was then about 80, had a son by him not above 27 years of age.

PHILADELPHIA, July 23.

We hear the 42d or Royal Highland Regiment, lately stationed here, will embark on board the transports to-morrow, for Cork.

By Capt. Davidson, from Providence, we learn, that the Vessels, had all (except three) returned from the Keys where they went in Search of the Treasure, lost some Time since, in a Spanish Ship, as formerly mentioned; but that, on hearing of the Success of the three Vessels, who had got 35,000 Dollars, they all went out again, in order to renew their Search. He also advises, that the three Frenchmen confined there for the Murder of their Capt. had been tried, and two of them condemned, one of whom was hanged, and the other reprieved for six Months.

Capt. Mitchell, from Jamaica, on the 10th Instant, spoke with Capt. Bennet, in a sloop, belonging to Jamaica bound to New-York from the Bay of Honduras, who had been out 70 odd Days; but as he was in Want of Provisions, and the Vessel very leaky, the Capt. thought he should be obliged to put into Carolina.
